- Make sure that Ridge Central is ready for guests with current info and resources properly laid out.
- Know needed information to communicate to guests for that day
- Be informed of current events and know where all environments are to guide guests.
- Greet guests and engage in conversation. Encouraging guests to participate and engage in the life of the church.
- When giving VIP gifts out, have guests fill out information card.
- When approached by new believers seeking next steps information, share in the excitement and encourage them to speak to a pastor that day.
- Let the Connections Pastor know of any needed resources to provide at the table
